Alongside having a qualifying law degree and the Legal Practice Course, here are the steps you need to take before applying for admission as a solicitor of England and Wales.

Create your mySRA account

- Create a mySRA account – this is where you will tell us about your training and apply for admission. Find out how to create an account [\[https://consultations.sra.org.uk/mysra/get-mysra-account/#heading_a27d\]](https://consultations.sra.org.uk/mysra/get-mysra-account/#heading_a27d).

Register your training

- You must register your period of recognised training (often known as a training contract). You need to do this at least 30 days before it starts. Find out how to register your training [\[https://consultations.sra.org.uk/become-solicitor/legal-practice-course-route/period-recognised-training/your-period-recognised-training/register-my-training/\]](https://consultations.sra.org.uk/become-solicitor/legal-practice-course-route/period-recognised-training/your-period-recognised-training/register-my-training/).

Complete the Professional Skills Course

- The Professional Skills Course (PSC) is the final, compulsory part of training on the LPC route and usually takes place during a period of recognised training.
